Library News

Our library is open before school for a limited number of students from 8.15am. If your child has been given permission to use the library at this time and has already signed up with Mrs Palmer, they will have received an 'Early Morning Library Pass'.

Morning breaktime continues to be open for students to drop in, sign up for a lunchtime activity, use the computers or to borrow books. Only those students who have signed up for a lunchtime activity will be permitted to use the space during this time.
